

November 2019

Autumn view from the new "Mt. St. Ann"

“For you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” - Genesis 3:19

It doesn't seem all that long ago that I wrote to you in the August newsletter about all the programs, events, and improvements that have taken place at St. Ann this past year. Yet here I am, once again writing to my beloved parishioners and thinking about the closing of this year, with the Advent and Christmas seasons quickly approaching.

The speed at which time passes should not surprise us, although it always does. In James 4:14 we are told, “You have no idea what your life will be like tomorrow. You are a puff of smoke that appears briefly and then disappears.” This quote is timely, given that at the beginning of November we are reminded of our mortality in two ways: All Saints Day on November 1st and All Souls Day on November 2nd.

On All Saints Day we remember those special men and women whose lives, although not perfect, still obtained sainthood because of their faithfulness and devotion to Jesus and His Kingdom on earth. In fact, this year's Christmas gift (sorry to ruin the surprise) for the parish is a book called Rediscover the Saints, reminding us that the saints are not long gone but alive and well, ready to help us on our journey to sainthood. The Church holds the Saints in high regard, and is why All Saints Day is not only just a Solemnity, the highest ranking type of feast day, but also a Holy Day of Obligation.

The Church also designated November 2nd to commemorate the souls in the process of obtaining heaven (purgatory) and our prayers to help them achieve this, or All Souls Day. On Saturday, November 2, we will celebrate a special Mass of Remembrance for parishioners who have died in the past year. But this special Mass is not our only way of honoring and remembering our faithful departed. At St. Ann, we also have the Legacy Garden, which offers parishioners a way to ensure that their parish is able to continue and enhance the Kingdom in our community, so that future parishioners will have liturgies, sacraments, and religious education to make the next generation of saints.

If you would like to remember St. Ann in your will, please contact Tim Clifford in the parish office to discuss the various levels of the St. Ann Legacy Society. We know that not everyone can participate at the same level, and Tim can provide options for you to consider.

As we hear on Ash Wednesday, “Remember that you are dust, and unto dust you shall return.” Our time on earth is limited and, as many of you can attest, it passes quickly. This is why it is important to make sure that we are living like saints today and being good stewards of God's gifts.

As we approach a new year we are reminded of the new opportunities and future hopes that are always upon us. Take, for example, our seminarian intern, Ethan. One day he will be a priest, and who knows, maybe future pastor of St. Ann??? God continues to renew the Church, the parish, and each of us because God is the Giver of light and Source of all that is good.

In Christ,
Father McCarthy

Meet

Ethan

Hoying

Hello. My name is Ethan Hoying and I extend my gratitude and appreciation to St. Ann's for the warm welcome and generous hospitality with which this vibrant community has greeted me in my first months.

Prior to entering seminary, I grew up on a small family farm outside the town of Russia (pronounced Roo-she), Ohio where I graduated from Russia K-12 Public School in 2013. My parents are Mark and Gina Hoying and my grandparents are Francis and Leola Hoying and the late Marion and Emily Grillot, all of Russia, OH. I have two brothers and a sister. I am also fortunate to have two little nieces. My family and I are members of St. Remy Parish.

I graduated in May 2017 with a B.A. in honors philosophy from the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio. Founded in 1888, the Josephinum is one of the two college seminary programs of which the Archdiocese of Cincinnati sponsors college-level seminarians (the other is Bishop Simon Brute College Seminary in Indianapolis). Uniquely, as the only pontifical seminary outside of Italy, the Josephinum is a pontifical institution which is not under the governance of any diocesan bishop, but is instead immediately subject to the Holy See, through the Apostolic Nuncio to the United States.

Upon graduation from the Josephinum, I entered major seminary in August 2017 at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary of the West, the Athenaeum of Ohio. Founded in 1829 by Bishop Fenwick, Mount Saint Mary's is our archdiocesan seminary and the place where I have called home for the past two years. In total, I have been a seminarian now for six years, and I have three more years (including this year) until priestly ordination.

It is with great joy that I will spend the next year at St. Ann as part of my priestly formation. In addition to gaining valuable parish experience, I look forward to personally getting to know many of you over the next several months. Please keep me in your prayers and trust in my prayers for the St. Ann parish family. May God bless you for your generous support.

Mass+... & Socials

Mass+... Season 2 is Underway

The kick off of the 2nd season of Mass+... took place on August 4th. In the Gathering Space we showcased the many programs offered on Sunday mornings.

Parishioners enjoyed homemade treats, courtesy of our St. Ann Bakers Ministry, as they checked out the displays. We also supplied information on our various adult educational series, as well as upcoming speakers, and programs specifically designed for our young parishioners, including Babysitting, Preschool, Youth Choir, Teen Group, and Youth Program.

Spirit wear from our Hospitality Room was also on display. Hours for the Hospitality Room have been extended to include after the 4 pm and the 11:30 am Masses, as well as Monday evening hours from 6:30-8:00 pm. This gives parishioners the opportunity to conduct parish office business when they are here for Mass. This is a great time to show your parish pride and browse our selection of St. Ann polo shirts and sweatshirts. Make sure to grab a cup of coffee or tea while you are there.

1st Annual Car Show & Craft Fair

On a weather perfect Saturday, September 7, we held our first Car Show and Craft Fair. We had over 75 entries and cars ranged from 1920-1980. Prizes were awarded for Best Paint, Best Truck, Best Custom and more. Father McCarthy selected the 1969 Ford Mustang Mach 1 to award as Pastor's Choice.

Simultaneously, the Craft Fair was in full swing in the gym. Sixteen crafters and vendors displayed their crafts and enjoyed talking about their gifts as well as networking with others. We plan to host this event again next September.

Socials are a Big Part of St. Ann

We are a parish of education and fun!

Two of our social events involve playing games; Euchre, a popular card game, and Bunco, a fast-paced dice game, both provide an evening of fun and fellowship for those in attendance.

On August 18th we taught parishioners how to play these games during Mass+... in preparation for the upcoming events.

We hosted a Bunco night on Sept 14. Ladies enjoyed the evening, playing Bunco, snacking on delicious appetizers and treats, and meeting new people while having drinks served to their table. All proceeds from this event support the St. Ann Seminarian Fund.

Our Euchre night on Oct. 19 brought both social and seasoned card players together for a great night out. After 12 rounds of Euchre, players enjoyed a Skyline Chili dinner. Thanks to all the players and volunteers who came together to make this night of fun and fellowship a great success!

Greeters, Sitters and Stewards

Last year we introduced a new ministry: the Hospitality Ministry, which includes greeters, bakers, hospitality center stewards, youth program leaders and babysitters. Over 100 parishioner volunteers have joined the team on a rotational schedule and are true ambassadors of St. Ann parish. Their wonderful dedication is a blessing to us all! We invite you to join our team; there is much to do and we would appreciate your help. Stop by the Hospitality Room and talk with one of the stewards. They are happy to answer any questions you may have about being a part of this ministry.

Wednesday, December 11 | 7:00 p.m. | St. Clare | Joint Penance Service with Little Flower

Feast of the Immaculate Conception: Although December 8th is the date of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, it falls on Sunday this year and Advent takes precedence. Therefore, Mass at St. Ann on December 9 will be at its usual time, 6:45 p.m. Confessions at 5:30 p.m.

Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

Mobile Missionaries

Mobile Missionaries has been a great addition to our spiritual programming here at Northgate Park Senior Living. It's a wonderful opportunity for our residents to stay engaged with the church without the difficulties of leaving the community. The team is well-versed in their teachings/presentations and we appreciate their dedication to our senior community. We look forward to the growth of this program within our community and the spiritual connection with our residents.

33 Days to Morning Glory

"Everyone should have a genuine devotion to Mary and entrust his life to her motherly care." Vatican II

One of the greatest aspects of being consecrated to Mary is that she's such a gentle mother. She makes the lessons of the Cross into something sweet, and she pours her motherly love and solace into our every wound. Going to her and giving her permission to do her job truly is the "surest, easiest, shortest and most perfect means" to becoming a saint. What joy it is to be consecrated to Jesus through His mom, Mary!

The videos are still available for everyone to watch by going to our Adult Education page on the Saint Ann website.*

Parish Representative

Hola! My name is Noris Hartman. I was born in Colombia. My father was Chinese and my mother is Colombian. I came to the USA some 40+ years ago. Worked for Fr. McCarthy at Holy Name before he was assigned to St. Ann. About 4 years ago he asked me to teach a Faith Formation program for the Hispanic here at St. Ann, on Tuesday nights. When Maria Bolanos decided to stay home with her second child, Fr. McCarthy asked me to come to St. Ann as Religious & Sacramental Coordinator & Parish Rep for the Hispanic community here. I welcome this opportunity to be of help to Fr. McCarthy in teaching our Catholic Faith.

THE PAVILION PROJECT

The number one challenge that every church faces today is how do we get our young families and youth involved in the life of the parish. St. Ann is no different. During our Engagement Process, this challenge was identified as our greatest challenge by a wide margin.

The reality of this challenge is that the Parish used to be the center of all activities 25 years ago and before, and it was not an issue. In the 2000's, there became a ton of other alternatives that took the focus of a Catholic family away from the Parish. Some major changes that effected families, are that both parents are working, select sports teams took over for community teams, Catholic Education was starting to get expensive and many more factors.

As we investigated this challenge, we discovered one common request from our youth and young families - "we need a place that we can call ours and be able to do stuff." The Pavilion Project is that place here at St. Ann. This project would include a 40 X 60 covered pavilion with a concession area and seating, a sand volleyball court and a large fire pit area.

The initial building of the pavilion cost $50,000 of which we have $25,000 already. We are looking to have parishioners donate the remainder and give us that place for our youth and young families. For more information or if you wish to donate toward this much needed facility, please contact Tim Clifford at 521-8440 or tclifford@saintannparish.org.

THE ROAD TO GOD IS PAVED WITH ..... EDUCATION!

In his apostolic exhortation entitled Sacramentum Caritatis (Sacrament of Charity) – Pope Benedict XVI explains that despite how well we plan and execute the liturgy, there is a need to provide an education in eucharistic faith capable of enabling the faithful to live personally what they celebrate. The faithful can more fully participate in the beauty of the faith by more deeply understanding the mysteries of the faith.

Pope Benedict is emphasizing the challenge of the Catholic faith which truly demands that we earnestly seek to learn more about the teachings of the Church. Because it is through learning about the Trinity and other doctrines of the faith that we can grow closer in relationship to God and thereby more fully participate in the Sacraments. In Paragraph 1210 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we read:

“The seven sacraments touch all the stages and all the important moments of Christian life: they give birth and increase, healing and mission to the Christian's life of faith. There is thus a certain resemblance between the stages of natural life and the stages of the spiritual life.”

This paragraph regarding the Sacraments ties in perfectly with the earlier statement from Pope Benedict because God reveals Himself to us differently as we grow older. Our understanding of our faith changes as we experience more in life – our experiences open our eyes to how our faith can play a role in our lives and those of our loved ones.

Are you prioritizing your Catholic faith education? You will be surprised, if you take the time to attend a class at the parish or log onto FORMED.org and watch a video or movie, that what you thought you knew is only scratching the surface of the beauty and depth of our Catholic faith.

God loves us so much, but we can only experience that love within our hearts and minds if we choose to expose ourselves to the faith and find ways to incorporate that faith within our daily lives and not just attending Mass on a weekly basis. God wants to spend time with us 24/7 – let us dedicate ourselves, as we enter the season of Advent, to learning something new about our faith and expressing deeper love for our Creator.

Greetings! As we begin to move toward the end of Liturgical Year C, I wanted to share with you some wonderful musical treats coming your way!

This past July, Father McCarthy and I attended a workshop on “Singing the Mass” at the Athenaeum. In the workshop we discussed incorporating the roots of our Catholic faith and traditions back into the Mass (i.e. Gregorian chant and Antiphons). You will notice the use of Antiphons instead of gathering hymns during the seasons of preparation (Advent and Lent). I am so excited to start using them for Advent because they are so beautiful and prayerful in their simplicity.

The Antiphons are meant to be sung just like a Responsorial Psalm. The cantor will intone the psalm tone, the congregation will repeat it, followed by a verse sung by the cantor, then back to the psalm tone. You will get the hang of it, and I think you all will really enjoy singing these beautiful melodies as we prepare for the birth of Our Lord.

Musically yours, Becky Schoenfeld

Is Jesus on your list to thank? As we go through the holidays, it is common courtesy to say thanks for your gifts. In some instances, we thank our gift giver by phone, e-mail, sometimes with a thank you note or maybe even by giving a gift in return. Yet, there are those special gifts for which we feel we should thank someone in person.

God is always there for us and gives us those special gifts. God's gift may be person's presence in your life, of health, or the gift of someone providing your care. Or, perhaps God gave you a gift to meet a material need, such as money, a house, or a new car. All gifts from God rise to a level for which we should thank Him in person.

In person? Yes, you can thank God in person! In fact, you can worship in God's presence just as Mary and the apostles stood in His presence. How? Eucharistic Exposition.

Please join us for one hour a week, when the church is quiet. During that time, you really can thank God in person . . . during Exposition.

Eucharistic Exposition

St. Vincent de Paul 3rd Quarter Report

St Vincent de Paul members visit our neighbors in their homes. This allows us to treat our neighbors as people not clients. It also allows us to see firsthand the situation the neighbor is experiencing. We discover that the neighbor needs more help with food, perhaps a bed and sheets in addition to rent. Home visits allow us to develop relationships with our neighbors.

SVDP members visited 114 families this summer. Your generosity allowed us to deliver 137 bags of food and rent and utilities for the amount of $9,320. Our neighbors are sincerely appreciative for your donations.

During one visit to provide rent to a family, our neighbor expressed her joy for receiving the rent by stating this would be her happiest birthday. Her daughter said, "It's your birthday?" and gave her mother a kiss. Both cried. A SVDP member then asked the child if she wanted to get her mom a cake. She said "Yes." He gave her a Kroger card to allow the child to buy her mom a cake. Because of your gifts to SVDP, you shared in that moment.

Thank you for your generosity and your prayers.
